CRYSTAL CAVIAR COMPANY: CRYSTAL JEWEL FOR YOUR INTERIOR

Best workers, best material, great work, historical tradition and experiences with the hardest environments in the world for installation as superyachts, airplanes or trains. This is Crystal Caviar, The Czech Republic based company, which produce only first class luxury Bohemian glass and crystal products.

Glass is magical material, which has its own rules to work with, which are in Northern Bohemia transmitting from generation to generation of glass workers just from 13th century. On this big historical tradition is based Crystal Caviar company. The company collaborate only with local glassmakers, which are masters in glass craftsmanship. With the help of this workers and with support of team of designers and artists is Crystal Caviar able to meet every customer's wish.

„Philosophy of Crystal Caviar company is, that customer has to be always satisfied. It doesn't mean, that we blindly do everything, which customer want. We recommend the best solution for their wish and after his approve we designed it, pick the best glass technique and material, produce it and at the end safely installed it. The important thing is, that the final product has to perfectly fit to the interior and help to glow it,“ describe Marek Landa, founder and owner of the Crystal Caviar company.

Crystal Caviar is able to offer a wide range of glass and crystal products. The biggest part of its production are huge Bohemian crystal chandeliers, in latest time also glass sculptures. But the company also produce wall lights, mirrors, special and one-of-a-kind Crystal Caviar's tiles, glass columns, table lamps, stairs, door handles, tables...Just anything you want, the company creates from glass.

Most of the production is custom-made. But it doesn't mean, that Crystal Caviar haven't any its own designs. The company employs the team of young and creative designers, who work also on their own projects. Excellent example of this creative work is the „prism bud chandelier“.

Prism buds chandelier is created from luxury handcrafted glass prisms. These prisms are made of first-class optical glass. With this type of glass light decomposes and create millions of light reflections resembling a rainbow. From single prism bud you can create many various pieces. For example a lamp made of one big bud or a chandelier made of many buds put together to one big flower. Final look of luxury piece depends only on your wish.
